. . . unless an adequate supply of pancreatic enzymes is available to complete digestion.

Pancrex V is the most effective preparation for replacing pancreatic secretion in the gut. It is indicated in cystic fibrosis of the pancreas, chronic pancreatitis, pancreatectomy, post-cholecystectomy and in all digestive disorders where a relative deficiency of pancreatic enzymes is a contributory factor. Pancrex V is activated, whole dried pancreas having a tryptic activity approximately equal to 5 times that of Pancreatin B.P.

don't use Merbentyl to inhibit gastric secretion

because

Merbentyl is not an antisecretory drug. Do use it to control gastrointestinal spasm because here Merbentyl is a remarkably effective antispasmodic. Moreover, Merbentyl is so selective that its use is rarely followed by side effects commonly seen with other drugs used for this purpose. It can even be administered to patients with chronic simple glaucoma or prostatic hypertrophy.

Merbentyl (dicyclomine hydrochloride B.P.C.) was first described in 1947, and has been widely used clinically to control gastrointestinal spasm and hypermotility in many countries for over 12 years. It acts both on the neuroreceptor sites innervated by post-ganglionic parasympathetic fibres, and directly on smooth muscle tissue.

Indications

- 1 Primary functional disorders of the gastro-intestinal tract: spastic colon, pylorospasm, post-cholecystectomy syndrome.
- 2 Adjunctive therapy in organic disorders, e.g. ulcerative colitis, diverticulitis.
- 3 Infant colic (here the drug is regarded as specific therapy).

Low NHS. cost An average week's treatment—2/8d.

Merbentyl tablets each tablet contains 10mg. dicyclomine hydrochloride B.P.C. Recommended adult dosage, 2 t.d.s.

Also available with phenobarbitone and as Merbentyl Syrup.

SALAZOPYRIN

Salazopyrin was first used in Sweden in the early 1940's. Since then it has become the universally recognised treatment for ulcerative colitis. Its action is believed to depend on its specific affinity for connective tissues. Remission, or considerable improvement, has been seen in 70-80% of patients treated with Salazopyrin.

Positive Results

In patients with active ulcerative colitis, Salazopyrin achieves positive results—

- * number of stools decreases
- * abdominal cramp disappears
- * fever subsides
- * appetite improves
- * rectal mucosa heals rapidly

NEW SALAZOPYRIN EN-tabs...

are better tolerated because of their special enteric coating and convenient, easily-swallowed shape. They dissolve easily in the small intestine, so reducing to a minimum gastric upset or nausea, which have been noted in some patients.
